Welcome to Inter Artes - an association to promote the Arts

InterArtes is a non-profit association which manages the project Gargonza Arts. It is responsible for selecting the curators, the invitation of the practitioners, the organization of the project in Gargonza, the setting up of exhibitions and events as well as collecting the required membership fees.

Do become a member!

As a member of InterArtes you support practitioners from the Visual Arts, Music, Architecture and Literature. You will have the possibility to stay at the Castello di Gargonza in the Tuscan countryside at special rates and meet the artists.

InterArtes was founded in January 2011 and is based in Cologne (registration number VR 16732). The association is a non-profit organization. All contributions and donations are tax deductible.
